Langley Winds to Perform at Duck Town Amphitheater

Duck, NC – Join us in Duck, North Carolina, for a special concert by the Langley Winds Woodwind Quintet.

The United States Air Force Heritage of America's Langley Winds Woodwind Quintet will be in Duck for a special performance on Saturday, June 11, 2011 beginning at 6:00 p.m. at the Town Amphitheater; gates set to open at 5:30 p.m.

This is the band's second appearance in Duck and we are thrilled to have them back on our stage. For over 10 years, the Langley Winds have been inspiring audiences with a musical repertoire which includes a wide variety of popular, patriotic, and chamber music. Mark your calendars and plan to join us for this very special free concert!

The event is free. Seating in the Town Amphitheater for this event is on a first-come, first-serve basis and is limited to a set number of guests. Once seating in the amphitheater is filled, the show will be closed to additional concert goers.

All Town events held outside. In the case of inclement weather, or performer or site unavailability, an activity may be cancelled or rescheduled. Any changes will be posted at the Town Park, on our website at www.townofduck.com, on Facebook: Town of Duck, Twitter: DuckPR, and on the Town's event hotline at (252) 255-1286.
