performing at local Duck venues. Crutchfield is mostly known for his neo-soul sound. His timbre creates music in a variety of genres including jazz, funk, Latin, and rock. Crutchfield, a saxophone aficionado, has been playing since he was four years old. He has performed with many internationally-known artists, including Kim Waters, Alex Bugnon, Branford Marsalis, and the legendary Gap Band. Crutchfield's latest album "Private Party" is by far one of his best albums yet. He is currently in the studio working on his next album. With his raw talent and passion for jazz he is sure to become one of his generation's most prolific and successful professional musicians.

Soul Rebels Brass Band- Imagine blending the sounds of Mardi Gras funk, soft rock, and reggae so seamlessly it defies category. Now shrink that idea into a seven-piece ensemble, add a hip hop sensibility plus a hundred years of New Orleans jazz tradition, and you get the Louisiana sound known as the Soul Rebels. Following the devastation that Hurricane Katrina brought to their home, the group embarked on a reformation of purpose. Their most recent album, "There's No Place Like Home" is a soulful tribute to New Orleans Jazz and culture. Also, their much anticipated album "Unlock Your Mind" will be released in the United Kingdom this September and in the United States in January 2012. Averaging around 250 shows per year, the Soul Rebels have brought the party to stages as far away as South Africa and Europe, playing some of the world's best-known music events, including the New Orleans Jazz and Heritage Festival, Detroit Jazz Festival, and the Monterey Jazz Festival. This summer the Soul Rebels performed at the New Orleans 2011 Essence Music Festival, which featured major recording artists such as Mary J. Blige, Trey Songz, and Macy Gray. With their powerful and uplifting sound, these gifted musicians are guaranteed to bring a Taste of New Orleans to the Duck Jazz Festival stage.

The Kirsten Thien Band- The Kirsten Thien Band featuring fiery blues singer/guitarist Kirsten Thien of New York City has been wowing audiences across the United States. Kirsten Thien's soulful delivery of her insightful and sensual songs has earned her regular radio chart positions along with international press and radio airplay. Comparisons abound, from Keb' Mo' to Sheryl Crow, but Thien has carved out her own unique Contemporary Blues sound. Thien has two successful albums "She Really Is" (2003) and "You've Got Me" (2006) and her newest album, "Delicious" is just that. Thien received the Abe Olman Award for Excellence in Songwriting in 2009. With her soulful voice and powerful lyrics, Thien is sure to deliver an unforgettable performance.
